Beacon House provides treatment for co-occurring disorders for individuals who need structured recovery support while managing employment, family and daily life responsibilities. We draw from a number of innovative and evidence-based therapeutic techniques to work together to achieve something far greater than any one person can achieve alone.

Whether you have a client, employee or loved one in the early stages of recovery, or someone who is stepping down from a residential program, our team of addiction experts is here to provide you with compassionate care and a program personalized to meet your needs.
